FLEXIT B.V.

Quality Statement

Top management is committed to ensuring that quality objectives are set and that performance is regularly reviewed. This is a commitment to continue to improve the effectiveness of the Quality Management System within the organisation.

It is the company's goal to provide its clients with refurbished and new IT products and services across Europe. Products and services shall be provided on a cost-effective and timely basis that matches client requirements and will be conducted following the company's quality procedures.

The company recognises the vital importance of our clients' operations and acts accordingly where FLEXIT can add value to their business. Our objective is, therefore, to be flexible and accommodating to our clients' needs by continually assessing and improving our services.

Although the Chief Executive Officer has ultimate responsibility for Quality, all employees have a responsibility within their areas of work to help ensure that Quality is embedded within the whole company.
